Outlook

Final Notice Before Legal Action – Retaliation and Lease Non-Renewal

From Bradley Crowe <bradcrowe@hotmail.com>
Date Tue 9/30/2025 9:39 PM
To jodirossi@velairmanagement.com <jodirossi@velairmanagement.com>; liaburg@velairmanagement.com <liaburg@velairmanagement.com>

Bradley A. Crowe

Lexington Flats, Unit #104

2977 Lexington Ave S

Eagan, MN 55121

bradcrowe45@gmail.com

651-417-3946

September 20, 2025

Velair Property Management

Attn: Jodelle Rossi

7645 Lyndale Avenue S

Minneapolis, MN 55423

jodirossi@velairmanagement.com

Lisa Burg

Property manager

Lexington flats.

2977 Lexington Ave s Eagan MN. 55121

Subject: Final Notice Before Legal Action – Retaliation and Lease Non-Renewal

Dear Ms. Rossi,

Your September 19th response fails to provide any documented evidence supporting the allegations cited as grounds for non-renewal. No incident reports, police records, or lease violation notices have been provided. The vague and defamatory language used—such as “appearing to be under the influence”—is unsubstantiated and retaliatory.

I reiterate my assertion under Minnesota Statutes § 504B.285 and § 504B.441, which prohibit retaliation against tenants who assert legal rights or report misconduct. Your refusal to engage in good-faith dialogue, combined with inconsistent lease practices and threats of eviction, constitutes a pattern of retaliatory behavior.

This letter serves as final notice that unless Velair Property Management provides the requested documentation and ceases retaliatory actions within five (5) business days, I will proceed with the following:

- Filing a formal complaint with the Minnesota Department of Human Rights
- Initiating a Tenant Remedies Action in Dakota County District Court
- Seeking injunctive relief and damages for retaliation and procedural misconduct

I remain open to resolution but will not hesitate to assert my legal rights. All future communications may be directed to my legal representative once proceedings begin.

Sincerely,

Bradley A. Crowe

Lexington Flats, Unit #104

bradcrowe45@gmail.com

651-417-3946