Dear Ms. Burg,

Attached below is a formal cease and desist letter regarding ongoing harassment and retaliation directed toward myself and my roommate, Dena Sazama, at Lexington Flats, Apt #104.

We are requesting immediate cessation of all misconduct and a written assurance within 10 business days that these behaviors will stop. Continued violations will result in legal escalation.

This letter is not a waiver of any rights or remedies available to us under law.

Dear Bradley,

This is to inform you that, moving forward, any further communications from your residence will be directed to our attorney.

Additionally, please be advised that any incidents similar to the one that occurred last week will continue to result in lease infractions. When law enforcement is called to the property due to your actions toward our staff, this is considered a serious violation and is non-negotiable.

At this time, we are proceeding with an eviction for cause.

Bradley,
Our property manager has been with our company for almost 4 years.
I am sorry if you feel as though you have been misunderstood , however, she is making sure that all residents are following the properties policies and procedures across the board.
She is not doing anything that is separate from what you have signed in your lease as well as your house rules.

Thank you,

Jodelle Rossi

ie said enough . i am not giving you any more of my facts you will have too we have been resident here going on 5 years, your manager has done nothing here except to attack peoples integrity and trying to manipulate situations into her benefit.. let's set the record straight, in no way shape or form was there a confrontation of any thing but being calm cool and collective by myself or Dena i myself have never even said a word to her ever . we came down to the office to see what she was talking about in the lease violation she claims that happened it was during business hour and within the 3 days so said on the complaint from here. witch is our right and responsibility.. she jumped up and ran to the door slammed it in our face and she said I'm calling the police i stated good we need record of this . they came and they went. this is not the first time she has employed that tactic. she had pour apt up for rent before her fabrication of abuse from Dena my cameras say top the contrary . ask her to show you and the rest of your office the recording of the night 8/20 an that alone will yell you and the court the facts. we have witnesses and resources that will testify on our be half of her abusive be behavior rights right wrongs wrong, legal and illegal in the 2 weeks she has been here she has violated 5 or 6 we are still getting our facts to see if we have the fact and enough to prove our case any wat there i5 that have definite merit and are very solid . we are prepared to defend and to file suit for any situation. lack of communication to discuss these issues and all other issues are a failure on the opart of velair property management.

Brad,
Your apartment was put up for rent due to us non renewing your lease at the end of October
I myself had a couple of run in's with you back when Tina had left the property and it is not necessary to be as vocal as you have at times.
We are owned by a company that expects us to abide by the policies put in place for ourselves as a management company , as well as ensuring our residents are abiding by the same policies they have signed.
We will not be renewing your lease and have asked that you vacate at the end of your lease.

Thank you,

Jodelle Rossi
